

A sale o' work I understand
They mean to hae ere very lang.
The waistcoat white to gie her
I heard today ye're a receiver.

I doot twill no be easy sold.
But some are unco' easy gull'd.
May be some pair young, silly gent.
will buy it frae ye for a cent

Before my rhyme I fairly end,
A bit advice tae ye ill send,
When our new years dance comes roon,
About it never fash your thumb:

Mind ye air business, bide at hame
I'm fit as you to mind my ain
Sae dae ye likewise tis your duty,
Sae meddle wi nae ither body.
